INTERNAL RULES OF THE STRATEGY, SUSTAINABILITY AND COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE OF BRASKEM S.A.

INTERNAL RULES OF THE STRATEGY, SUSTAINABILITY AND COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE OF BRASKEM S.A.

1. Objectives

The Strategy, Sustainability and Communication Committee ("CESC" or "Committee") of Braskem S.A. ("Braskem" or "Company") is the statutory and permanent advisory body to Braskem's Board of Directors ("CA" or "Board") in relation to the matters described in item 2 of these Internal Rules ("Rules").

In the exercise of their duties, the Committee members shall act in strict compliance with the Company's mission and values and conduct their activities in accordance with corporate governance best practices, the provisions of Law No. 6.404, dated December 15, 1976 (the "Brazilian Corporation Law"), as amended, the regulations issued by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission ("CVM"), the Shareholders' Agreement filed at the Company's headquarters, where applicable, the Company's Bylaws ("Bylaws"), and this Rules. CESC members shall comply with and ensure compliance with this Rules, exercising their duties with loyalty and due care and maintaining the confidentiality of any information to which they have access.

2. Attributions

The CESC shall:

i. monitor compliance with the guidelines established in the Policies regarding:

- disclosure of information; and
- sustainable development.

ii. evaluate, prior to the resolution by the Board of Directors, proposals submitted by Braskem's Management for amendments to the Policies referred to in item "i" above;

iii. evaluate, prior to the resolution by the Board of Directors, Braskem's strategic direction across its different business lines, ensuring compliance with the sustainable development guidelines adopted by the Company;

iv. evaluate the definitions for the planning of Braskem's Business Plan ("BP"), namely: business, philosophy, vision and strategic direction;

v. contribute to the Business Plan proposal, prior to its consideration by the Board of Directors, with a focus on the general guidelines, directives and assumptions adopted in the preparation of Braskem's multi-year Business Plan;

vi. monitor and report to the Board of Directors on Braskem's performance against the approved Business Plan, contributing to Braskem's operational, industrial and corporate strategies, including production and feedstock, marketing and sales, innovation and technological development, brands and patents, sustainability initiatives, as well as the implementation of growth and industry-strengthening strategies;

vii. review and monitor the Company's communication strategy;

viii. review and monitor the Company's corporate image-building strategy;

ix. review the stakeholder engagement plan and monitor Braskem's institutional image resulting from the Institutional Relations Policy and Programs (media, press, trade and representative associations, and brand management);

x. monitor and evaluate Braskem's initiatives related to corporate sustainability and Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") criteria, within the scope of the strategic vision established in the Business Plan;

xi. review the risks included in the Corporate Risk Matrix and the respective mitigation plans related to matters within its scope of responsibility;

xii. approve, annually, the calendar for ordinary meetings to be held during the following year;

xiii. approve, annually, the Basic Agenda for the ordinary meetings of the following fiscal year, upon proposal by its Coordinator, including activities within the CESC scope of responsibility and any other activities required to address assignments established by the Board of Directors; and

xiv. annually conduct a formal assessment of its performance and the effectiveness of its meetings, processes and governance practices, reporting the assessment results, recommendations and improvement plans to the Board of Directors.

3. CESC's Operation

3.1. Composition and Term of Office

The CESC is composed of at least three (3) and up to six (6) members appointed by the Board of Directors from among the effective and alternate members of the Board of Directors and/or external members with relevant technical expertise and experience, observing the provisions of the Shareholders' Agreements filed at the Company's headquarters.

The Coordinator of the CESC shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of the Shareholders' Agreement filed at the Company's headquarters.

The term of office of the CESC members shall be two (2) years and shall coincide with the term of office of the Board of Directors.

The term of office of members of the Board of Directors, whether effective or alternate, shall commence on the date of their appointment by the Board of Directors, while the term of office of external members shall commence upon execution of the respective instrument of investiture as Committee member.

The term of office of any member shall terminate upon: (i) expiration of the term of office; (ii) resignation; or (iii) removal, at any time, by the Board of Directors. If a member of the CESC permanently ceases holding office as a member of the Board of Directors before the end of the respective term of office, the Board of Directors shall appoint a replacement.

The position of member of the CESC is personal and non-delegable.

3.2. Coordination

The CESC Coordinator will have the following duties:

i. propose changes to the CESC, when necessary, in the Basic Agenda and in the approved Annual Calendar, considering the recommendations of the other members of the CESC;

ii. ratify the agenda of the regular meetings of the CESC, before its forwarding, by the Executive Secretary of the CA ("Secretary of Governance" or "S-CA"), to the members of this Committee;

iii. call, conduct and coordinate the meetings of the CESC;

iv. determine the need for extraordinary meetings and propose the dates on which such meetings will be held and their respective agendas, without prejudice to the right of the other members to request that such meetings be called;

v. ensure that the call, agenda and support material for the meetings are forwarded to the members of the CESC, by the S-CA, within the period stipulated in these Rules;

vi. invite, whenever necessary or appropriate, members of the Board, Braskem officers, other employees, external consultants and any other person holding information relevant to the purpose of the meeting. Such invitations shall be made with the support of the S-CA;

vii. forward to the CA the analyses, opinions and reports prepared within the scope of the

CESC and that must be submitted to the CA;

viii. propose to Management the engagement of external consultants to contribute to the CESC's activities in specific situations, in accordance with the Company's procurement procedures;

ix. ensure that the draft minutes of the meetings are forwarded to the members of the Committee, for consideration, within seven (7) business days after the meeting; and

x. to present to the Board of Directors any proposals for updating these Rules.

3.3. Meetings

The CESC develops its activities primarily through working meetings and, for this purpose shall meet ordinarily at least six (6) times per year, according to the approved Annual Calendar and, extraordinarily, whenever the CESC Coordinator or any of its members deems it necessary, in alignment with the CESC Coordinator, or when required by the circumstances.

The ordinary meetings of the CESC to consider matters of deliberation of the Board of Directors shall preferably be held at least seven (7) days in advance of the dates scheduled for the Meetings of Braskem's Board of Directors ("RCA" or "RCAs"), which may be in a shorter period of time, but always prior to the holding of the RCAs.

The calls, agendas, as well as the support materials for the meetings must be made available to the members of the Committee, by the S-CA, at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the date of the meeting, unless the majority of its members set a shorter deadline, but not less than forty-eight (48) hours, in which case a duly instructed agenda must be made available.

The meetings of the CESC shall be held, preferably, at Braskem's main office, and may be held remotely, by means of telephone conference, videoconference or by any other means of communication that allows the identification of the member of the Committee and simultaneous communication with all other persons present at the meeting, and recording is not allowed. In case of remote meetings, it will be the individual and exclusive responsibility of each member of the CESC to adopt all necessary measures to ensure the strict confidentiality of the meetings, and access by people not authorized by the CESC Coordinator to any information handled in the meeting is strictly prohibited. The means of communication to be used by the member of the Committee must be the one indicated by the Company's Information Security Department. If it is impossible to use the indicated means, it will be up to the member of the Committee to inform S-CA in advance of the means of communication that will be used, so that the Information Security Department can carry out the validation.

Preferably, all members of the CESC should be present at all meetings, whether in person or by means of telephone conference, videoconference or any other means of communication. The minimum quorum required to hold a meeting must be more than half of the members. The member of the CESC who is unable to attend the meeting must inform the CESC Coordinator in advance and indicate, if applicable, which member will represent him, provided that such occasional representation shall not constitute a delegation, as set forth in item 3.1 of these Rules.

Whenever the Coordinator of the CESC is unable to attend a meeting, he or she shall notify the other members in advance and designate a substitute.

The recommendations of the CESC shall be recorded in minutes prepared by the S-CA and, after validation by the members of the CESC, shall be made available on Braskem's Governance Portal. The minutes shall be archived by the Corporate Governance Department at the Company's offices.

3.4. Conflict of Interest

If any of the members of the Committee is in a situation of conflict of interest with a certain matter to be considered, they must promptly disclose the conflict to the Coordinator or to the S-CA, being prevented from deliberating or otherwise intervening in the subject matter of the conflict. The impediment of the participation of the member of the Committee will be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If the member fails to disclose such conflict of interest, any other Committee member who becomes aware of it shall do so. Exceptionally, to protect its interests, the Company, by decision of the Legal Department, may restrict members subject to a conflict of interest from accessing information and materials relating to the matter giving rise to the conflict, as well as to the part of the meeting that deals with the subject.

3.5. General Provisions

The S-CA shall be responsible for supporting the CESC in accordance with the duties set forth in the Internal Rules of the Board of Directors.

All communications between the members of the CESC and external advisors, whenever applicable, shall be conducted under a confidentiality regime.

In the event of any conflict between these Rules and the Company's Bylaws, the latter shall prevail and these Rules shall be amended, to the extent necessary.

These Internal Rules were approved at the ordinary meeting of Braskem's Board of Directors held on October 22, 2026 and will be made available on the Company's website.
