Rodrigo Barbosa, President & CEO commented, "We are proud to once again deliver a strong shareholder return, with a dividend and buyback yield of about 4% over the last twelve months. This was another quarter in which we met our goals. We grew production to a quarterly record of 95.6 thousand GEO and posted record nine-month Adjusted EBITDA of US$677 million, and we expect the fourth quarter to be even stronger in production. At the same time, we kept investing in exploration to extend our life of mine and in developing Era Dorada, while paying one of the highest yields in the industry and keeping our leverage low."

[1] Including shares and BDR buybacks. We calculate dividend yield as the announced dividend per share divided by the NASDAQ share price in US$ on the announcement date (dividend yield = dividend per share / share price at announcement date). The buyback yield is calculated as the total value of shares repurchased in the period divided by the average market capitalization on a given year in each case using the NASDAQ share price (buyback yield = buybacks reported / average market capitalization for a given year). The dividend yield + buyback yield is the sum of the dividend yield and the buyback yield for the reporting period

[2] As of September 30, 2026, the Company had 83,854,843 common shares issued and outstanding.

[3] Adjusted EBITDA as (Loss) profit for year, plus finance expenses, less other (expense) income, less Change in estimation for mine closure and restoration for properties in care & maintenance, plus depletion and amortization.
